

Kabisa is a clinical decision-making support system for the diagnosis of illnesses in the tropics. It allows lecturers, experts and clinicians to assess which diagnosis is most likely given certain symptoms, outcomes and travel history.

You can try this here!

powered by Advanced iFrame